

Guidance for Nominators – Honorary Fellowship

The College can award an Honorary Fellowship to individuals, paediatricians or non-paediatricians who have demonstrably shown major contributions to paediatrics and child health. This can be through research, clinical service, leadership or education.

Nominations are invited into three categories:

- Paediatricians based in the UK
- Paediatricians based internationally
- Non-Paediatricians/Non-Clinicians

Timetable: 2026 Nominations

Prize-Giving Ceremony

The ceremony to award recipients their honours takes places at the RCPCH Conference. The date for 2026 Conference will be confirmed in due course by our Events team.

Award Winners will receive

1. Reimbursement of travel within the UK, to and from the Conference in line with the RCPCH Expense Policy.
2. One night stay in a double room, including breakfast (Includes plus one)
3. One guest to attend the Conference with you.
4. Two complimentary conference attendance day

Please note that costs for the Conference dinner attendance, meals and travel and subsistence costs for partners are not included.

How do you submit nominations & what is the process?

Nominations for Honorary Fellowship are submitted via our webform. Please use the link on the main Honorary Fellowship webpage. As a nominator, you will need details of a seconder to make the proposal.

Nominators and seconders must hold an active membership of RCPCH in any category. Staff cannot submit nominations. We will need to know your contact details as nominator in order to contact you, and the title and names of your seconder.

Nominees should not know they are being put forward for the award, and nominees do not need to be a member of the College in order to be considered a valid submission.

Nominators will be asked to submit 250 words apiece on the following topics:

Paediatricians based in the UK:

- Advancement (directly or indirectly) of child health
- Development of healthcare delivery
- Advancement of specialty through research, training or management
- National and/or International achievements
- Work and contribution in relation to the Royal College of Paediatrics and Child Health

Three website links can be submitted

Paediatricians based internationally:

- Advancement (directly or indirectly) of child health
- Development of healthcare delivery
- Advancement of specialty through research, training or management
- Achievements within the nominee's home country and/or globally
- Work and contribution in relation to the Royal College of Paediatrics and Child Health

Three website links can be submitted

Non-Paediatricians/Non-Clinicians

- Advancement (directly or indirectly) of child health
- Development of healthcare delivery
- Advancement of specialty through research, training or management
- National and/or International achievements
- Work and contribution in relation to the Royal College of Paediatrics and Child Health

Three website links can be submitted

Once the nominations window has closed, and are assessed by the Nominations Committee, the suggested recipients are approved in the next Council meeting. Following this, the committee co-ordinator will contact successful nominees, and all nominators to let them know the outcome.

How are nominations assessed?

The Nominations Committee scores receives and assesses nominations for Honorary Fellowship, James Spence Medal and Members' Award.

For Honorary Fellowship, the Committee will read each nomination submitted and score on each of the sections outlined above.

The Nominations committees is comprised of paediatricians, individuals with an interest in child-health as well as members of RCPCH staff.

Privacy Statement

Honorary Fellowship uses the following Privacy Policy. This covers how we as a College process your personal data in relation to the award submissions, and how all information is treated as confidential.

EDI

RCPCH collects the membership numbers of all nominees who are College members and we use this information to analyse the diversity of the submissions. We also collect the membership number of nominators to analyse the diversity and to examine any obstacles of obstructions that may be faced by individuals who submit nominations to ensure that we aim to be more inclusive in the next round. If a member has provided EDI data to RCPCH, we analyse the anonymised data.

The EDI data is reported upon within the Nominations Committee only. The report may be cited by our EDI team in wider publications. If you have any concerns, please contact us on awards@rcpch.ac.uk.

Any Questions?

If you have any questions about how to submit your nominations, or if you have any issues, please contact us on awards@rcpch.ac.uk.