Worksheet – Sharing our views with visual voting

You can use this sheet for agreeing with children, young people or their families how they would like their views to be shared with their target audience.

Give all participants some stickers, a token (paperclip, button, bricks) or a pen to make a mark with. They then use their vote on this sheet to show how they would like their views to be shared. You can see more about visual voting in recipe 8 of our Recipes for Engagement resource.
