
Description of committee

The RCPCH has a College Specialist Advisory Committee (CSAC) in Paediatric Respiratory which is responsible to the College for monitoring training within the sub-specialty and advising the College on related issues. This CSAC has a Chair, 3 Training Advisors with a job-share, an Assessment Advisor, a Quality Advisor and a Trainee Representative, who form the voting members of the CSAC.

Role details

- A Chair for Paediatric Respiratory CSAC.
- The CSAC Chair is responsible to the Vice President (Training & Assessment).
- Term of office: 3 years, extendable to a maximum of 5 years.

Eligibility

Applicants must be Respiratory Consultants or SAS doctors with equivalent experience in Respiratory who also have trainer status. Applicants must be Honorary Fellows, Fellows or Ordinary Members of the College and whose primary mailing address is in the UK/Ireland.

Role purpose and responsibility

The responsibilities of the post holder are:

- Work with key stakeholders to improve and monitor standards of training and assessment for Paediatric Respiratory.
- Adhere to the RCPCH curriculum principles around length, context and course programme.
- Advise trainees on aspects of their training and how they may work towards acquiring the necessary competences, ensuring that paediatric trainees have satisfied the training requirements for CCT.
- Ensuring that the database of sub-specialty trainees in Respiratory is kept up to date in terms of trainees' progress.
- Act as the main representative and spokesperson for the CSAC when required to do so.

In accordance with College policy, all candidates should be in Good Standing with the RCPCH.

- Represent the Committee at other internal or external meetings of the College or at events held by the College e.g., Careers Fairs.
- Oversee the development/updating of the Specialty Level competency frameworks and Special Interest (SPIN) Modules in the specialty (if applicable).
- Ensure training documents and learning outcomes for the specialty are regularly updated. This will include review of the Curriculum in line with GMC requirements.
- Review job descriptions for Consultants in the Specialty.
- Evaluate Portfolio Pathway (formerly known as CESR, Certificate of Eligibility to the Specialist Register) applications in a non CCT specialty for entry to the Specialist Register. Each application has to be assessed independently by two assessors, one of which must be the CSAC Chair or named deputy.
- Assess sub-specialty recognition applications (Article 13.5) for applicants already on the Specialist Register for paediatrics, but who wish to add Respiratory.
- Liaise with the CSAC Assessment Advisor in the co-ordination of scenario writing for the START Assessment and the process of quality assurance of scenarios.
- Assist the Quality and Training Projects Team in producing the Annual Specialty Report to the GMC by providing relevant information from the subspecialty and submitting the pro-forma as required for this purpose.
- Assist the Sub-Specialty Recruitment Co-ordinator in running the annual recruitment to the National Grid by providing information on programmes and numbers of posts available and attending the interviews as a member of the panel.
- Chair meetings of the CSAC, ensuring that agenda and dates are planned and agreed as far in advance as possible.
- Devise and deliver a work plan for the CSAC that links in with the aims and objectives set out by the RCPCH Corporate Plan.
- Provide formal written reports to the Training and Quality Board, in line with the Committee reporting structure.
- Attend centrally organised induction/training organised by the RCPCH.

Working relationships

The post holder will work with other members of the CSAC, predominantly the Training Advisors, Quality Advisor, Trainee Representative, Officers for Training and Assessment and Training Services staff as required. This list is not exhaustive.

In accordance with College policy, all candidates should be in Good Standing with the RCPCH.

Process

Applications for roles should be submitted electronically at volunteering opportunities no later than the closing date. Your CV should also be uploaded, and we will ask you to include a statement of up to 250 words outlining the relevant experience and reasons for applying to the post.

When undertaking a role at RCPCH all role holders must agree to respect and uphold the charitable objects, vision, and values of the RCPCH and uphold the code of conduct which embodies the values that the RCPCH holds the breaking of which could lead to sanction. Core to RCPCH's values is the exemplary behaviour of its members, both as professionals and also as individuals.

Appointed candidates will be asked to register their interests. This is to ensure that personal circumstances that might compromise a volunteer's ability to be seen as acting correctly are properly disclosed.

The role holder must be committed to following the College's safer working practices guidelines when working with children, young people and adults at risk.

Safeguarding is everyone's responsibility, with the role holder required to comply with the College's Safeguarding policy. Appointed candidates must also have attended Equality, Diversity and Inclusion training within the last 3 years.

The College may – at its discretion and with the agreement of the candidates – choose to offer this role as a role-share between more than one candidate once the appointment process is complete. Details will be discussed with candidates at the time should this arise.

The RCPCH wants to represent all the communities we serve and are dedicated to creating an inclusive working environment. The College is particularly keen to receive applications from those who belong to an underrepresented group as defined in the equality act 2010, including age, disability, sex, race, religion or belief, gender reassignment, married or in a civil partnership, pregnancy/parental leave, or sexual orientation.

The College is a disability confident leader, please let us know if you require any reasonable adjustments or accommodations as a result of a disability, impairment or health condition.

Members can also receive support to cover the costs of caring responsibilities, where these responsibilities would otherwise prevent them from undertaking voluntary work for the College, as per the removing barriers fund. Claims must be submitted using the appropriate form and the College should be made aware of these requests at least a month in advance. For further information please contact edi@rcpch.ac.uk.

Eligible candidates who have the required knowledge, skills and experience may be invited to attend an interview either at the College's Offices or via tele-conferencing.

In accordance with College policy, all candidates should be in Good Standing with the RCPCH.
