
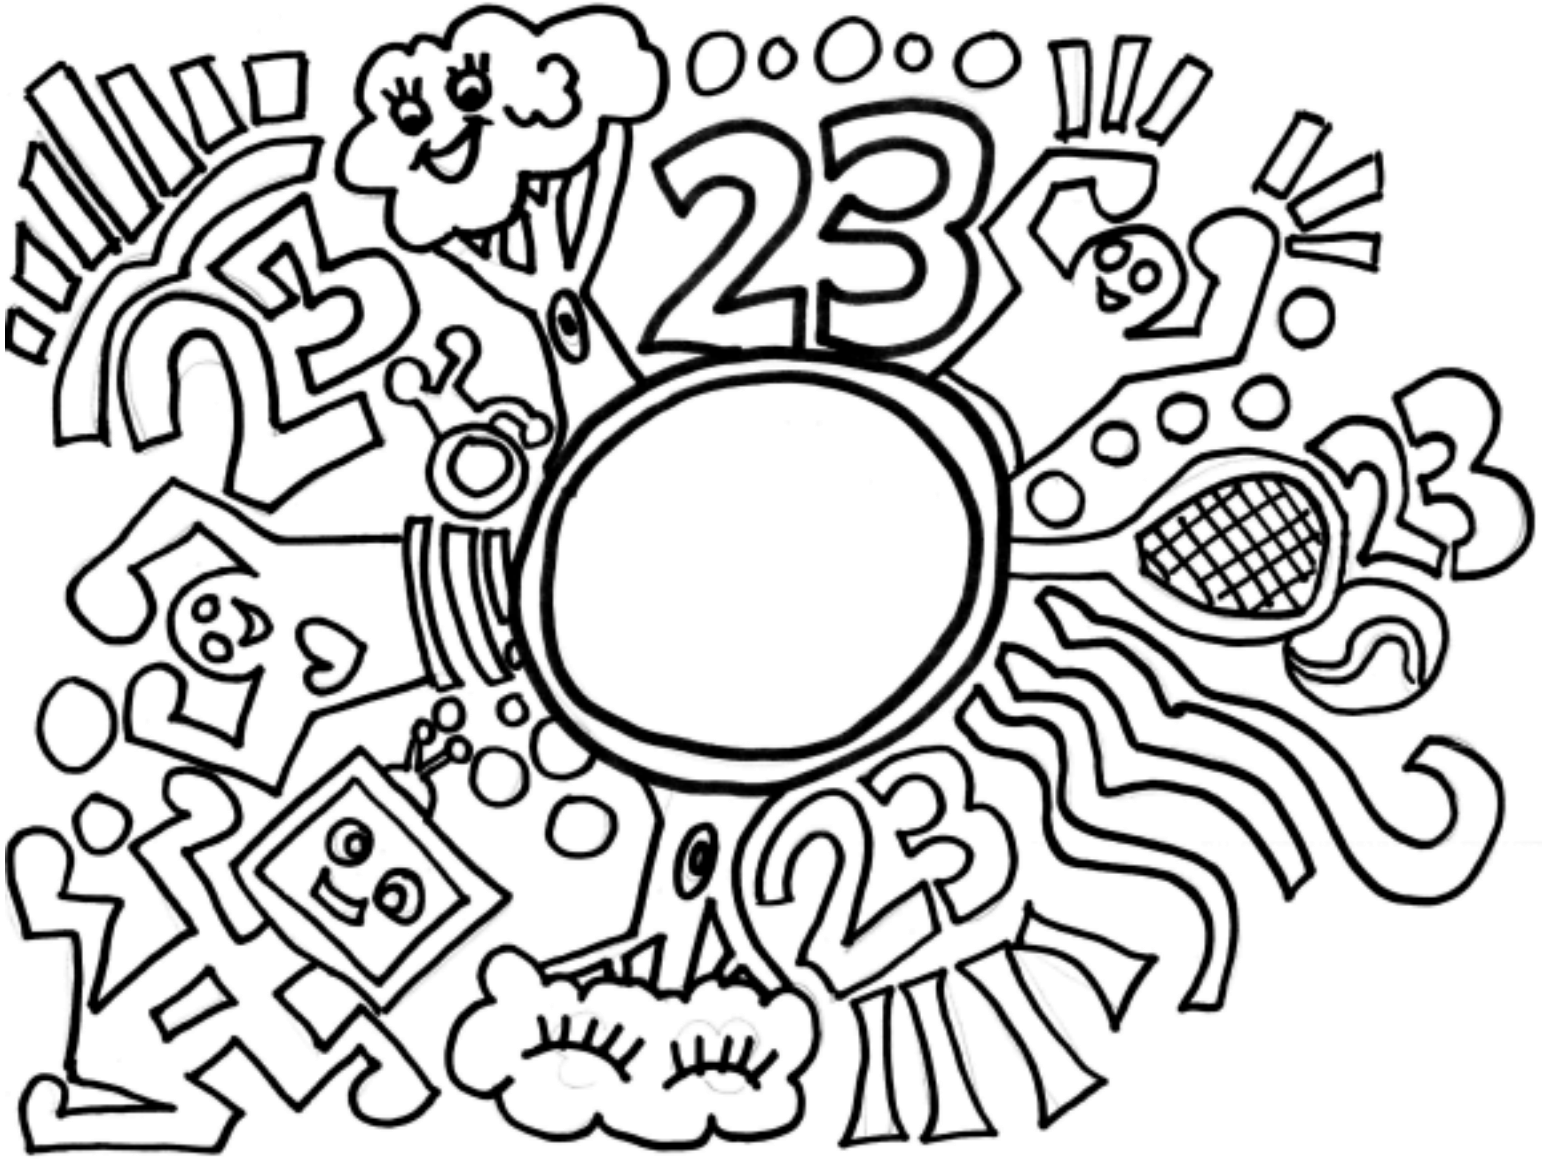
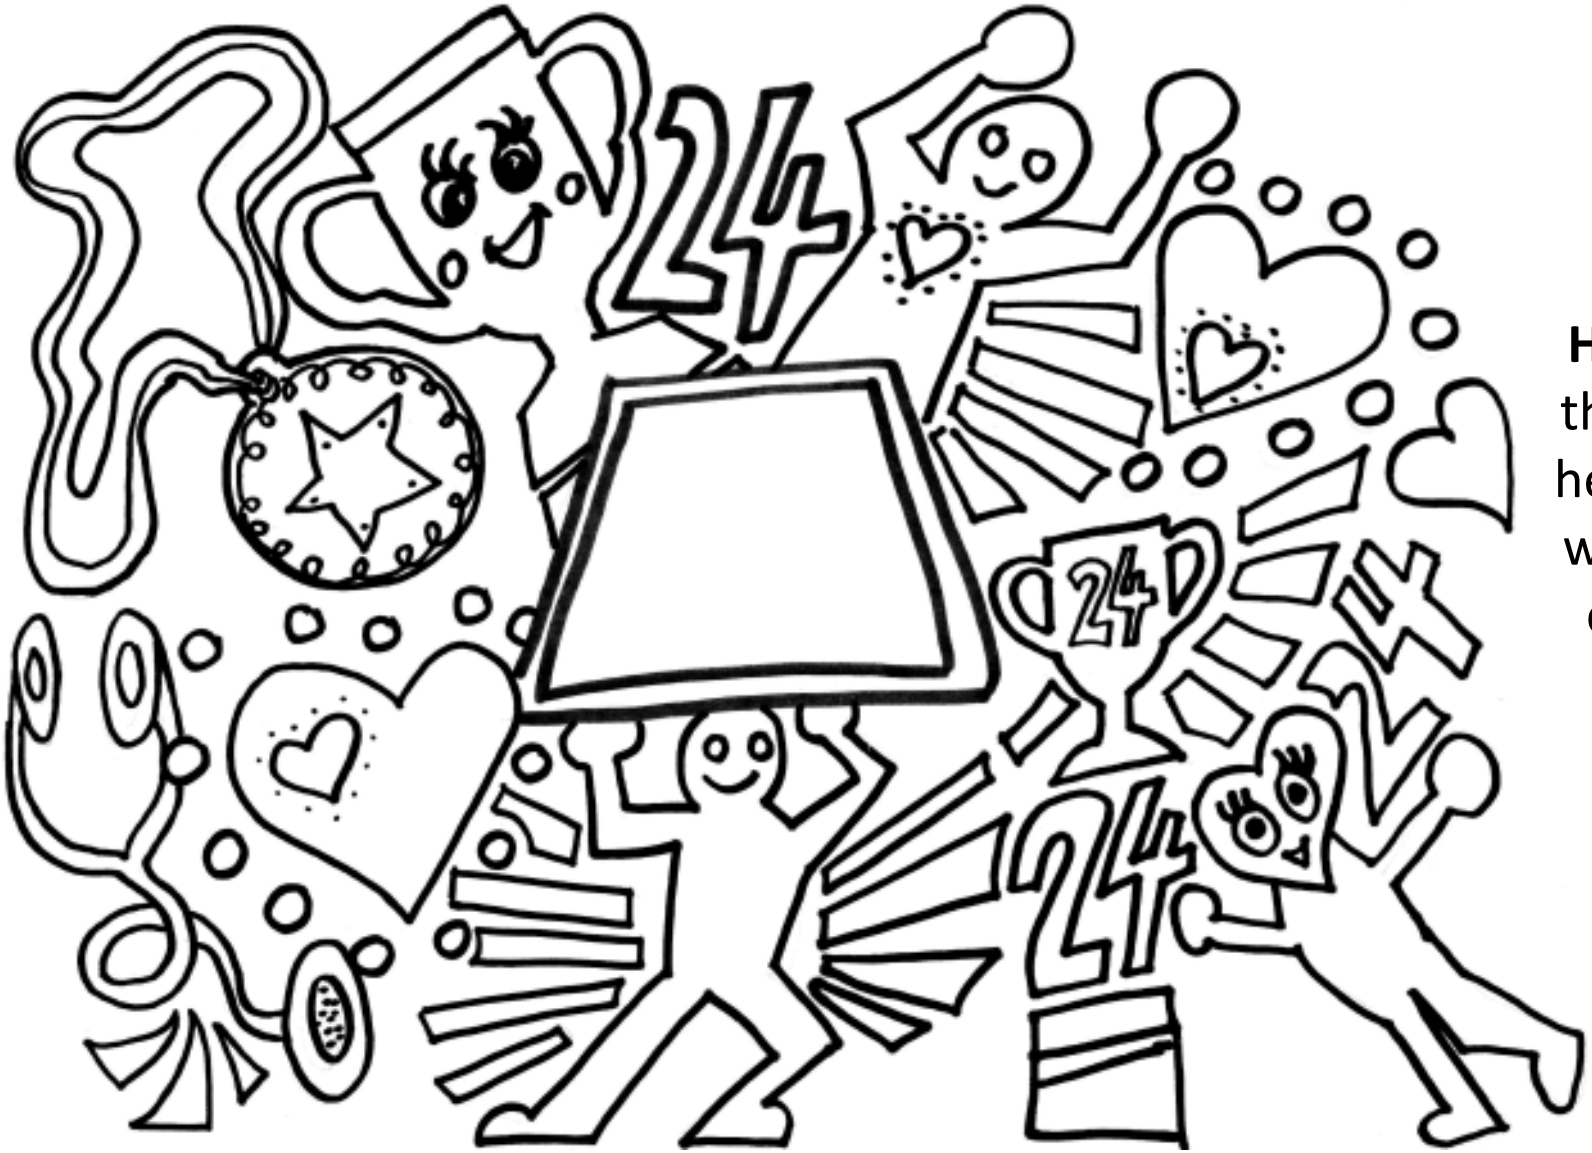
Health & Article 12

the right to be involved in decisions that affect you, from individual care decisions through to shaping health services that you might use



Health & Article 23

children and young people with disabilities have the right to be actively involved, which includes having appropriate communication support within health care appointments



Health & Article 24
the right to the best health care possible, which could include creating child and youth friendly health services

Health & Article 28
the right to education, while they are an inpatient, or as an outpatient with services working together to avoid missing school due to medical appointments, having voice projects in the evening, weekends and school holidays

Health & Article 31

the right to rest, relax and play. Which includes support to help those with conditions to be able to engage in social activities, and for health services to try to schedule appointments around important things like school matches, proms or social activities.