

Tea Party Programme

Council Chamber
Royal College of Paediatrics and Child Health,
5-11 Theobalds Road, London, WC1X 8HS

Wednesday, 10th July 2019, 13.00—17.00pm

- | | |
|------------------------|---|
| 13.00 - 13.30pm | Registration & refreshments |
| 13.30pm | Welcome
Prof Russell Viner, President, RCPCH |
| 13.40pm | Key note speaker
Baroness Blackwood, Parliamentary Under Secretary of State for Public Health and Innovation |
| 13.55pm | Bridging the gap: rare disease and mental health
Katy Baker, Alex TLC |
| 14.10pm | Shining a spotlight on rare diseases – a medical students perspective
Bhawna Sharma, medical student, Manchester University Medics Paediatric Society & Dr Lucy McKay, Medics 4 Rare Disease |
| 14.25pm | Living with haemophilia & engaging young people with rare disease
Laurence Woollard, On the Pulse Consultancy |
| 14.40pm | A Puff of smoke: Growing up with an undiagnosed rare disease
Sarah Lippett, author A Puff of Smoke |
| 15.00pm | Afternoon tea, sandwiches and assorted extras |

Please turn over

- 15.30pm Whole genome sequencing for rapid diagnosis in severely ill children in intensive care
Helen Dolling, University of Cambridge
- 15.45pm Rare Youth Project – empowering children & young people with rare diseases
Nicola Miller & Cameron, Rare Revolution Magazine
- 16.00pm Key note speaker
Professor Jenny Harries, Deputy CMO
- 16.10pm Award of the Sir Peter Tizard Research Bursary
Dr Chenqu Suo, Addenbrooke's Hospital, Cambridge
- 16.20pm Award of the BPSU art competition winner
- 16.25—1700pm Networking