

Face-to-Face MRCPCH Clinical Exam - Note Taking Policy

As we return to face-to-face clinical exams, some candidates might be worried about whether they are able to take notes during the exam. Note taking has always been allowed during face-to-face clinical exams. Candidates will need to leave all notes behind with the host at the end of their circuit so they may be securely shredded.