
RCPCH-NIHR PIER Award 2024

The PIER (Paediatric Involvement and Engagement in Research) Award recognises excellent patient engagement and significant contributions to the NIHR Clinical Research Network. This award is open to research active paediatricians and multidisciplinary research teams who make outstanding contributions to involve paediatric patients and families in the development and delivery of research.

Eligibility Criteria

To be eligible for this award you must deliver a research study on the NIHR Clinical Research Network Portfolio. Any research active paediatrician or paediatric focused research team is eligible to apply. The individual or team should highlight their contribution to excellent paediatric patient/family engagement in the design and delivery of NIHR Clinical Research Network Portfolio studies.

Submission Criteria

Applicants are required to outline their contribution to NIHR Clinical Research Children's Portfolio studies with weight being attached to:

- how patients and families have been engaged and informed of new opportunities to participate in clinical research.
- co-production in the development and delivery of studies.
- innovative methods of study delivery.

Award

The winner(s) will receive a trophy and day entry pass for up to four members of the research team to RCPCH Conference and Exhibition 2024 (including reasonable expenses) where they will be presented with the award by the RCPCH President. The results of the competition will be announced in February 2024.
