

Description of committee:

The RCPCH has a College Specialist Advisory Committee (CSAC) in Nephrology which is responsible to the College for monitoring training within the sub-specialty and advising the College on related issues. This CSAC has a Chair, a Training Advisor (stepping down), one Assessment Advisor, a Quality Advisor and two Trainee Representatives and a SPIN co-opted Lead, who form the voting members of the CSAC.

Role details

- Quality Advisor required for Nephrology CSAC
- Accountable to the Chair of the CSAC and the Vice President (Training and Assessment)
- Term of office: 3 years or completion of training, whichever falls earlier.

Eligibility

Applicants must be subspecialty Consultants or SAS doctors with equivalent experience in subspecialty who also have trainer status. Applicants must be Honorary Fellows, Fellows or Ordinary Members of the College and whose primary mailing address is in the UK/Ireland.

Role purpose and responsibility

The responsibilities of the post holder are:

- Work with key stakeholders to improve and monitor standards of training and assessment for Nephrology.
- Adhere to the RCPCH curriculum principles around length, context and course programme.
- Ensure training documents and competencies documents for the sub-specialty are regularly updated. This will include review of the Curriculum in line with GMC requirements.
- Contribute to the development/updating of the Specialty Level assessed competency frameworks and Special Interest (SPIN) Modules in Nephrology.
- Work with CSAC Chair, Postgraduate Deaneries and Local Education Providers in the post and programme approvals process. To act as a representative, when invited, to GMC visits (Deanery wide or triggered) or RCPCH College visits, such as invited reviews.
- Contribute to the development/updating of the sub-specialty and Special Interest (SPIN) Modules in relevant to the sub-specialty.

In accordance with College policy, all candidates should be in Good Standing with the RCPCH.

Page 1 of 4

- Contribute to the quality assurance of scenarios for the START Assessment.
- Assist the Chair of the CSAC and the Training and Quality team in producing the Annual Specialty Report to the GMC by providing relevant information from the sub-specialty and submitting the pro-forma as required for this purpose by the agreed deadlines.
- Maintaining and updating the CSAC Action Log, in collaboration with the other committee members.
- Act as a link representative with the RCPCH Academic Training Committee to oversee the provision and quality of research opportunities within Nephrology training.
- Contribute to formal written reports to the Training and Quality Board, in line with the Committee reporting structure.
- Represent the Committee at other internal or external meetings of the College or at events held by the College e.g. Policy Conference, Careers Fairs.
- To attend centrally organised induction/training organised by the RCPCH.

Working relationships

The post holder will work with the other members of the CSAC, predominantly the Training Advisors, Quality Adviser, Trainee Representative, Officers for Training and Assessment and the Quality and Training Projects team as required. This list is not exhaustive.

Time commitment

Committee members will be required to attend up to 3 CSAC meetings and 2 CSAC Assemblies per year and devote sufficient time to the role to meet the demands of the role. You may be asked to represent the Committee at other internal or external meetings of the College. Meetings will normally be held via MS Teams with 1 meeting per year held in person in London.

Support provided from the College

The post holder will work with the other members of the CSAC, predominantly the Chair, Training Advisors, Assessment Advisor, Trainee Representative, Officers for Training and Assessment and Education and Training Division staff as required. This list is not exhaustive.

Members will be reimbursed for the cost of travelling expenses (in line with the College's expenses policy) and subsistence to attend College meetings. Remote attendance options may also be offered for some meetings.

Knowledge, skills and experience required

The post holder will be a Consultant in Nephrology with a commitment to modernising training in line with College Strategy. You will have wide experience in Nephrology and a demonstrated expertise and experience in training.

Essential:

- Member of the College in Good Standing with RCPCH
- Has attended Equality, Diversity and Inclusion training within the last 3 years.
- Works in a consultant post.
- Able to demonstrate experience as a clinical and educational supervisor.
- Have detailed, up-to-date knowledge of the requirements of postgraduate paediatric training, the regulations involved and the examinations, assessments and appraisals that trainees are required to undertake.
- Excellent communication skills and ability to work well in a team.
- Demonstrates an active involvement in education and training issues and have an appropriate and current working knowledge of educational requirements.
- Understanding of quality processes and quality assurance and improvement including assisting the Chair with monitoring and updating the Quality Improvement plan.
- Well-organised, and confident in the use of technology, including usage of shared documents, SharePoint, and remote meeting platforms (MS teams).

Desirable:

- Evidence of professional development in education e.g. Postgraduate Certificate in Education or equivalent.
- Able to demonstrate an active involvement in education and training issues and have an appropriate and current working knowledge of educational requirements.
- Contribution to developments in organisation/delivery of education.
- Knowledge of committee work.
- Awareness of RCPCH structure and function.

Process

Applications for roles should be submitted electronically at volunteering opportunities no later than the closing date. Your CV should also be uploaded, and we will ask you to include a statement of up to 250 words outlining the relevant experience and reasons for applying to the post.

When undertaking a role at RCPCH all role holders must agree to respect and uphold the charitable objects, vision, and values of the RCPCH and uphold the code of conduct which embodies of the values that the RCPCH holds the breaking of which could lead to sanction. Core to RCPCH's values is the exemplary behaviour of its members, both as professionals and also as individuals.

Appointed candidates will be asked to register their interests. This is to ensure that personal circumstances that might compromise a volunteer's ability to be seen as acting correctly are properly disclosed.

The role holder must be committed to following the College's safer working practices guidelines when working with children, young people and adults at risk.

Safeguarding is everyone's responsibility, with the role holder required to comply with the College's Safeguarding policy. Appointed candidates must also have attended Equality, Diversity and Inclusion training within the last 3 years.

The College may – at its discretion and with the agreement of the candidates – choose to offer this role as a job-share between more than one candidate once the appointment process is complete. Details will be discussed with candidates at the time should this arise.

The RCPCH wants to represent all the communities we serve and are dedicated to creating an inclusive working environment. The College is particularly keen to receive applications from those who belong to an underrepresented group as defined in the equality act 2010, including age, disability, sex, race, religion or belief, gender reassignment, married or in a civil partnership, pregnancy/parental leave, or sexual orientation.

The College is a disability confident leader, please let us know if you require any reasonable adjustments or accommodations as a result of a disability, impairment or health condition.

Members can also receive support to cover the costs of caring responsibilities, where these responsibilities would otherwise prevent them from undertaking voluntary work for the College, as per the removing barriers fund. Claims must be submitted using the appropriate form and the College should be made aware of these requests at least a month in advance. For further information please contact edi@rcpch.ac.uk.

Eligible candidates who have the required knowledge, skills and experience may be invited to attend an interview either at the College's Offices or via tele-conferencing. Following the interview, a recommendation will be made to committee on any appointment.

Personal information about unsuccessful candidates will be held for 6 months after the position has been filled, it will then be securely destroyed. Personal information about successful candidates will be retained on their membership file. The information contained in this will be kept secure and will only be used for purposes directly relevant to that person's responsibilities as a committee member. Please also refer to the membership privacy notice which explains how we will use the data we collect from you.

Dr Jan Dudley
Registrar
2026